

DEFINITION OF THE COMPANY'S INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

The definition of the Company's independent directors, approved by the Board, is the persons who have all the necessary qualifications and independence in accordance with and stringent than the current criteria set by the Capital Market Supervisory Board as follows:

- (a) holding shares not exceeding 0.75 percent of the total number of voting rights of the company, its parent company, subsidiary, associated company, major shareholder or controlling person, including the shares held by related persons of such independent director;
- (b) neither being nor having been an executive director, employee, staff, or advisor who receives salary, or a controlling person of the company, its parent company, subsidiary, associated company, same-level subsidiary, major shareholder or controlling person, unless the foregoing status has ended not less than two years prior to the date of appointment. Such prohibited characteristic shall not include the case where the independent director used to be a government official or advisor of a government unit which is a major shareholder or controlling person of the company;
- (c) not being a person related by blood or registration under laws, such as father, mother, spouse, sibling, and child, including spouse of the children of other directors, executives, major shareholders, controlling persons, or persons to be nominated as executive or controlling person of the company or its subsidiary;
- (d) not having a business relationship with the company, its parent company, subsidiary, associated company, major shareholder or controlling person, in the manner which may interfere with his independent judgment, and neither being nor having been a significant shareholder or controlling person of any person having business relationship with the company, its parent company, subsidiary, associated company, major shareholder or controlling person, unless the foregoing relationship has ended not less than two years prior to the date of appointment.

The term 'business relationship' aforementioned under paragraph one includes any normal business transaction, rental or lease of immovable property, transaction relating to assets or services or grant or receipt of financial assistance through receiving or extending loans, guarantee, providing assets as collateral, including any other similar actions, which result in the company or his counterparty being subject to indebtedness payable to the other party in the amount of three percent or more of the net tangible assets of the company or twenty million baht or more, whichever is lower. The amount of such indebtedness shall be calculated according to the calculation method for value of connected transactions under the Notification of the Capital Market Supervisory Board governing rules on connected transactions mutatis mutandis. The combination of such indebtedness shall include indebtedness taking place during the course of one year prior to the date on which the business relationship with the person commences;

- (e) neither being nor having been an auditor of the company, its parent company, subsidiary, associated company, major shareholder or controlling person, and not being a significant shareholder, controlling person, or partner of an audit firm which employs auditors of the company, its parent company, subsidiary, associated company, major shareholder or controlling person, unless the foregoing relationship has ended not less than two years from the date of appointment;
- (f) neither being nor having been any professional advisor including legal advisor or financial advisor who receives an annual service fee exceeding two million baht from the company, its parent company, subsidiary, associated company, major shareholder or controlling person, and neither being nor having been a significant shareholder, controlling person or partner of the professional advisor unless the foregoing relationship has ended not less than two years from the date of appointment;
- (g) not being a director who has been appointed as a representative of the company's director, major shareholder or shareholders who are related to the company's major shareholder;
- (h) not operate any business which has the same nature as and is in significant competition with the business of the company or subsidiary, or not being a principal partner in any partnership, or not being an executive director, employee, staff, or advisor who receives salary; or not holding shares exceeding one per cent of the total number of voting rights of any other company operating business which has the same nature as and is in significant competition with the business of the company or subsidiary;
- (i) not having any characteristics which make him incapable of expressing independent opinions with regard to the company's business affairs.

After having been appointed as independent director with qualifications complying with the criteria under (a) to (i) of the first paragraph, the independent director may be assigned by the board of directors to take part in the business decision of the company, its parent company, subsidiary, associated company, same-level subsidiary, major shareholder or controlling person, providing that such decision shall be in the form of collective decision.
